Dealer Comments

This used 2013 Tesla Model S feels like the future that showed up early. The cabin air filtration keeps the interior calm and the cruise control smooths out long highway stretches so you can set it and relax. Rear LED lights give a sharp, modern look at the back, while the security system and tire pressure monitoring help you keep an eye on what matters. Come see the sedan, take it for a spin, and decide if it fits your everyday.
